Musical Theatre Showcase

Politically Correct

June 19th - June 23rd

Politics takes center stage this summer as we discover how Musicals have influenced society. From 1776 and South Pacific, to Les Miserable and Hamilton, Broadway takes on tough issues through laughter, song and dance. This summer we take a look at history through some of the world's greatest musicals.

Guest Instructor Noelle Player Laufer

Noelle Player Laufer appeared as Grizzabella and Jenni-any-dots in the German company of Cats. Tours include Cabaret, Jesus Christ Superstar, and Victor/Victoria. She met her husband of 16 years while performing as the lead vocalist in Hey Mr. Producer. Noelle will lead an exciting 1/2 day musical theatre camp with focus on the vocal development, acting and dance. Students will learn about music, staging and choreography. They will create their own props and costumes. The week will conclude with a showcase of the students work in Politically Correct

*Auditions will be held on the first day.
